This is the sixth Office action of serial number 09/849,907, Apparatus for Supporting Medical Fluids, filed May 4, 2001.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach the arm of claim 29 being rotatably movable within a plane about the clamp; movable along the first longitudinal axis and rotatably movable about the first longitudinal axis such that the movement of the arm along the first longitudinal axis is limited by the second portion of the arm in combination with the other elements recited, which is not found in the prior art of record.

Additionally, the prior art of record fails to teach the first and second arm portions of claim 39 being movable with respect to the clamp such that the receptacle support may be moved within a plane containing the first and second longitudinal axes and the first arm portion is movable along the first longitudinal axis, wherein the movement of the first arm portion has an increased diameter along the first longitudinal axis is limited to the second arm portion in combination with the other elements recited, which is not found in the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
